REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

On March 14, 2022, the Court ordered a forensic psychological examination of defendant Calvin Frank Robbins, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 4241(a) and (b), to assess both his mental competency for trial and his criminal responsibility for the charged offense. Doc. 28. He has since had a comprehensive psychological evaluation at the Federal Correctional Institution in Butner, North Carolina. Doc. 34. His evaluators found that he is competent to stand trial. Doc. 34 at 13.

Both defendant and the government stipulate to the report's findings. Doc. 39. The Court concurs with the report's un rebutted findings and concludes that Robbins is not presently suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to stand trial. It is therefore RECOMMENDED that defendant be found competent to stand trial pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241.
